

Washington State Indian Education Association

Annual Merit Awards & Recognition 2024

The Washington State Indian Education Association (WSIEA) takes an opportunity each year during our annual conference to acknowledge accomplishments of Native individuals who have contributed significantly to the education of Native people and of excellent Native Students. These awards include:

- Indian Educator of the Year
- Indian Elder of the Year
- Indian Parent of the Year
- Higher Education Indian Student of the Year
- High School Indian Student of the Year

WSIEA honors one high school senior and one higher education student who will receive a monetary merit award ($800 for high school seniors and $1,000 for current college students). Award recipients will be announced at the WSIEA Awards Banquet at the 39th Annual WSIEA Conference happening April 3-5, 2024, at the Muckleshoot Events Center, Auburn. Nominations only need to be made for the Indian Educator of the Year, Elder of the Year, and Outstanding Indian Parent of the Year. Applications/ nominations must be postmarked on or before Friday, February 16, 2024.

Nomination and application forms and guidelines for the recognition or student merit awards immediately follow in this packet. Please only submit the portion of the packet for which you are applying. For questions or more information, please contact Joan Banker at joan.banker@k12.wa.us or 360/725-6160 (office) or Cindy Kelly, ctkelly@olympen.com or 360/460-9549.

NOMINATION FOR RECOGNITION INFORMATION -- 2024

Association Background

The Washington State Indian Education Association was formally established in 1983. The purpose of WSIEA is to promote educational excellence for all Native American students through effectively influencing educational policy developments and implementation at state, regional and national levels in cooperation with other educators and educational institutions. WSIEA membership includes Indian educators, parents, and others who are dedicated to improving the quality of education for American Indian/Alaska Native learners. Each year the WSIEA recognizes members who have made significant contributions to the field of Indian education, specifically in the following areas:

- Indian Elder of the Year
- Indian Educator of the Year
- Indian Parent of the Year

All applicants shall be evaluated and verified by the WSIEA Recognition Award Committee (the awards committee is comprised of current WSIEA Board members in good standing). The award recipient shall be announced during the WSIEA Conference Recognition and Awards Banquet taking place either Wednesday or Thursday evening, April 3 or 4, 2024. Registration for the award recipient and an award banquet ticket for recipient and a guest will be provided by WSIEA.

Eligibility:

1. Nominations may be made by any individual WSIEA member who is in good standing. The nominee does not have to be a current WSIEA member.
2. You can nominate more than one person for each category. Submit one form for each nomination.
3. Nominees are required to submit verification of either: (1) membership in tribe, band or other organized group of Indians, including those tribes, bands or groups terminated since 1940 and those recognized by the state in which tribes, bands or organized groups reside; or (2) that they are a descendant in the first or second degree; or (3) that they are an Eskimo, Aleut or other Alaskan Native. United States- and Canadian-recognized tribes, bands, or First Nations are also considered eligible.
4. Attach the supporting material in an orderly fashion: a brief narrative biography, tribal affiliation documents (enrollment card or proof of descent), and a recent photo is desirable, but not required. Other materials may include recommendations, copies of achievements, lists of honors, and citations showing year received.
5. Nominations need to be postmarked on or before Friday, February 16, 2024. Please mail your nominations to :
